DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

2. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because the phrase "Provided in the present invention..." can be implied. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Drawings

3. Figure 18 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

4. Claim 8 is objected to because of the following:

Claim 8 sets forth that "a gas supply apparatus is provided between the substrate plate and the transport plane." The language is such that the "gas supply apparatus" is between the substrate plate and transport plane. However, this is inconsistent with the language of claim 17 wherein a gas supply apparatus supplies a gas between the substrate plate and the plane, i.e., the “gas” is between the substrate plate and the transport plane.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Michida (US 4,848,536).

Michida (US 4,848,536) discloses all the structures set forth in the claims.

Regarding claims 1, 4, 9, and 13, Michida (US 4,848,536) discloses “a plurality of electrodes (Fig. 11, ref.#s 1-9) arranged along the transport plane; and a control apparatus that induces electric charges in the substrate plate (Fig. 11, ref.# 11) by impressing voltage on each of a plurality of electrodes arranged along the transport plane, and impresses a voltage on each of the plurality of electrodes so as to generate an electrode charge code identical to a plate charge code identical to a plate charge code induced in the substrate, and switches (abstract, lines 20-23) the voltage impressed on the plurality of electrodes in accordance with a time interval required for producing dielectric polarization in the substrate plate.”

Art Unit: 2851

Michida (US 4,848,536), likewise, discloses all the structure associated with the apparatus/methods set forth in the dependent claims 2, 3, 5-8, 10-12, 14-31.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure:

Higuchi, et al. (US 5,534,740), Hoen, et al. (US 5,986,381), and Shearwood, et al. (US 5,995,800) each disclose an apparatus and/or method for transporting a substrate plate along a transport plane by electrostatic levitation.
